

Community Connectivity Made Affordable - with CBRS

Primary customer name

PCs for People

Vendor name

BTI Wireless

Pilot or commercial deployment

Commercial deployment

Primary use cases

Enhanced coverage, POS capabilities

Deployment locations:

Cleveland, OH,
Philadelphia, PA, Atlanta,
GA, Milwaukee, WI and
Minneapolis, MN

Go-live date:

12/22/24

Types of connected devices

- CBRS-compatible modems
- Refurbished laptops and desktops

Key business benefits expected or achieved

Extends coverage rapidly and cost-effectively to hard-to-serve neighborhoods.

Lowers monthly internet costs for qualified households while maintaining carrier-grade reliability.

Creates a scalable template for city-by-city expansion.

Customer Quote

“Our collaboration with BTI Wireless demonstrates what’s possible when innovation and mission align. Together, we are proving that shared-spectrum connectivity can deliver equitable, reliable, and affordable broadband to every household—driving real progress toward digital equity and Internet for All.”

Ryan Hodson, Director of Network Operations, PCs for People